NEWS OF THE TOWN

A NEW NOTARY.—Emma A. Miller of Tucson has been commissioned notary public.

AT DEATH'S DOOR.—M. N. Bill, the barber, is lying at the point of death of consumption. For the two days his death has been expected almost hourly.

HOTTER THAN THE FIRE.—James H. Griffin returned last night from a business trip to Jerome. He says that camp is the hottest place he ever saw. It is a hotter town than it was during the fire which wiped it off the map. Some idea of the heat at which Jerome is going may be gathered from the fact that a man yesterday let a contract for building a livery stable, and bound the contractor with an iron-clad clause to have it finished in twenty days.

HARBOUR HALL MIXING.—John Agard, the well known mining man and principal owner of the Agard mine in the Harbourside, is in town for the first time in a year. Without saying anything about his own property he said that the vicinity of Ehrenberg and Harbourside was destined to become the best mining region in Arizona. This was going to come about before long. One of the most promising properties there is that of the Martin brothers.

LIVELY AT BISBEE.—Merritt Hobson of Mesa was found dead in bed at Bisbee yesterday morning. It was ascertained that he had committed suicide by taking morphine in his room. His death by telegraph yesterday. That was not all that happened at Bisbee, again a "nothing of the sort." Did he feel too much morphine into his system, and Tom Drysdale, a former resident of Bisbee, shot and wounded a man named Norman Turkien.

HARVESTERS OF THE BLOCK.—The harpers of the block are landing upon the effects of the late Minnie Powers and carrying them. A prostitute by the name of Pearl set up an informal claim to a couple of porters and other furniture and took them away. She said she owned them. A male companion named "Slim Jim" pretended to be the owner of a horse and cart belonging to the dead woman, and took it. Neither of these parties have ever had enough wealth to buy such to keep them properly supplied with whiskey and morphine. A warrant will likely be issued against them for stealing.

ENOUGH, BUT NO MORE.—"I don't know how long my marriage," said T. F. Grindell, the returned "Rough Rider," last night. When he married from front end undergo it again for another thousand, from which it is concluded that he has had just enough. Sergeant Grindell added that he would not enter upon a military career again unless he believed he would really be up to the mark. He has gained seventeen pounds in ten days and the robustness of his appetite insures the early making up of the rest of the deficit.

DISTRICT COURT.—In district court yesterday Judge Romero in the case of the village of Tempe vs. Romero, was convicted and fined $5. The case was appealed from the police court in which the defendant was convicted of using improper language on November 4. In the case of the Hammond Typewriter company vs. Pinner a motion by the plaintiff to strike out a counter claim and one by the defendant to dismiss, were argued and submitted.

GAME COMMISSIONERS.—John McCarty and H. K. Fay have been appointed fish and game commissioners for Arizona. The new commissioners know more about game, especially big game, than anybody else in the territory. Hereafter the duties of commissioner have an important character. There was nothing to do but draw salaries and make reports. It is not within the memory of any man now living that a report was ever submitted. As to the salary, no legislature has made an appropriation or any other provision for it. It was not even fixed. So the commissioners have actually had nothing to do. The new commissioners, though, say they are willing to make work of it even if there is no pay. They intend to stop about stocking the streams with fish and carrying out the laws with respect to game.

For the troubles peculiar to women at change of season, climacteric life, resulting from hard work, nervousness, and impure blood, thousands have found relief and cure in Hood's Sarsaparilla.

WASN'T AT HIMSELF.—"Joe Campbell was at himself and made the best speech of his life," said a democrat yesterday, speaking of the late democratic rally at Mesa. "Did he say anything about the glory of Hancock-burn?" asked Tom Molloy. "No," replied the democrat. "Didn't he whoop about the glory of Hancock-burn?" "Then," replied Mr. Molloy, "Joe wasn't at himself."

A BOTTLE WASHER.—G. J. Dyer yesterday received word from the patent office that he and A. E. Cobb had been granted a patent for a bottle-washer on which they made application about three years ago. The application had been seven years in the operation of the bottle washer automatic after the bottles have been placed on an inclined plane. They are transferred to a tube which pours water and shot into them. Each bottle by means of a cut-off receives the same amount of water and then they are passed on and given a dual rotary and vibratory motion, which greatly facilitates the cleaning. They are also at the same time washed on the outside. The capacity of the machine is 600 bottles an hour. Only one man is employed, to feed bottles to the machine. There are other machines of nearly equal capacity which require, though, the services of three men. One man by the hand process can clean about 100 bottles an hour.

McKelligor's where you can get the finest hand-made sour mash, bourbon and Pennsylvania rare whiskies.

PERSONAL MENTION. Recorder T. A. Jobs and Marshal Hooker left yesterday morning for the Arizona dam on a hunting trip. They will be gone several days. Mr. F. T. Applinall, late assistant superintendent of the territorial prison, is in town having returned by way of Bisbee from a visit in California. He is thinking of going to Porto Rico. Judge W. H. Barnes of Tucson, who has been aiding and abetting Col. Willis in the north, arrived in town last night. Thomas E. Farish returned last night from the northern part of the territory. H. H. Shaw of Boston, Mass., was registered at the Hotel Adams last night. The Lawrence sisters revisited Phoenix last night after an absence of a couple of years. Ronald McDonald and wife of Galveston, Tex., are at the Ford for the winter. Henry Kent and Miss Kent of Cooper, N. Y., came to the Ford last night for the winter. H. M. Walker and wife of LaGrange, Mo., arrived in town last night. Burr Allison, the Hutchinson, Kan., cattle buyer, came in from the south yesterday morning. J. C. Hall of Rollands, Cal., was in town yesterday. V. Verney came down from Castle Creek hot springs last night. J. H. W. Jensen returned to the city last night.

JEMES PIPES' QUEBER WILL. Stephen Macetti, a Writer, Directs That His Body Be Cremated.

New York, Oct. 11.—The will of Stephen Macetti, a writer known as "Jemes Pipes of Pipeville," was filed in the office of the surrogate yesterday. The testator died a month ago. He directs that his body be cremated at Fresh Pond.

The will provides that should the testator die suddenly his body be taken to the morgue, as he has no desire
