A DUTY WOMEN OWE THEMSELVES.

"Good actions speak louder than words," so too, does the testimony of many thousands of women during a third of a century speak louder than mere claims not backed by a guarantee of some kind. That is prictors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription are willing to offer $500 reward for women who cannot be cured. Such a tematkable offer s founded on the ng record of cures of the diseases and veaknesses peculiar to women. there is an invalid woman, suffering from female weakness, prolapsus, or falling of womb, or from leu-corrhea who has used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription without complete success, the proprietors of that medicine would like to hear from such person—and it will be to her advantage to write them as they offer in perfect good faith, a reward of $500 for any case of the above maladics which they cannot cure. No other medicine for leled curative properties that would warrant its makers in making such an offer. The Sisters of the Good Shepherd, at their convent. "Our Lady of the Woods."
