MALICIOUS.—The wire rope that extends across the Colorado river, and used for guiding the ferry boat from one bank to the other, between this place and Fort Yuma, was filed about half way through by some maliciously-inclined vagabond, and the result was that on Wednesday afternoon last, while the boat was crossing to this side, it gave way. The shock was so sudden, and the current being so very rapid, that the boat was nearly overturned. Such conduct is unbecoming a man, and whenever the perpetrator is known, he should be dealt with to the utmost extent of the law.

ACCIDENT.—A little daughter of L. J. F. Jaeger, about five or six years old, was seriously, if not fatally, injured, last Wednesday afternoon, by the falling of a barrel of water upon her. The barrel was suspended in the air, as is the general custom here, for the purpose of keeping the water cool; the child was amusing herself by swinging it back and forth, when the rope broke and the barrel fell upon her, breaking her collar bone and one rib, and otherwise injuring her. The attending physician has but poor hopes of her recovery.

DAVID NEAHR.—This house is well deserving the immense patronage it commands. David has a splendid stock of everything in general use, and is in constant receipt of more by the arrival of every steamer. Country merchants throughout the Territory deal with this gentleman, more or less, and we have never heard of a word of dissatisfaction from a single one. He deals on the "square," and thereby makes hosts of friends and good customers. Cash buyers will find it to their interest to consult with this house.

STEAMBOAT TERMS.—The Cocopah, from Mohave, arrived last Sunday evening, and left for Port Isabelle next morning.

Barges No. 1 and No. 3 dropped down with the stream during this week; No. 1 from Ehrenberg and No. 3 from Mohave, with 225 tons ore for shipment to San Francisco.

The Mohave, with Barge No. 1, arrived from Port Isabelle last Monday, with full freight, and went down again the same day.

TO ARRIVE.—The Jewborn left San Francisco on Saturday; the 11th, and is due at the mouth of the river on Tuesday next.

Resolutions of Thanks.

At a meeting of the passengers on board the steamer Cocopah, Capt. J. Mellon in command, on her trip from this place to Fort Mohave, for the purpose of practically expressing their admiration at the able management of the boat, and their thanks for the kindness, courtesy and hospitality extended to them by its officers, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

RESOLVED, That in Capt. John Mellon we recognize an able and skillful commander, devoted to duty and the interests of his profession; a kind and courteous gentleman at all times and under every stress of circumstances, mindful of the comfort and happiness of his passengers.

RESOLVED, That our thanks are hereby tendered to Capt. John Mellon, and the officers under him, for their kind and courteous treatment, making our eight days' sojourn with them days of pleasing remembrance and unmingled pleasure; and we most cordially recommend our brave Captain and the accommodations of the Cocopah to the traveling public.

RESOLVED, That these resolutions be forwarded to the Arizona SENTINEL for publication.

WM. B. HOOPER & Co.—The attention of traders and the public generally is directed to the several new advertisements of this popular firm. For the past twenty years this establishment has been dealing with Arizonans and Sonorans, and its success has been unprecedented. To-day they have disposed of their retail department, and hereafter their attention will be devoted exclusively to the jobbing business. Their immense stock of goods is offered at cost, in order to make room for large invoices ex. Newbern and Josephine. To our interior merchants and others we would say: be sure you examine the stock of goods of Wm. B. Hooper & Co. before you make your purchases. Col. J. M. Barney, a member of the firm and a gentleman in every particular, will be found always ready to accommodate you.

THANKS.—Captain Mellon, of the Cocopah, has our thanks for copies of Yarmouth (Nova Scotia) papers.

NEW STORE.—In another column will be found the advertisement of Fitzgerald & Kenyon, who have just opened a store on Main street, between First and Second, next door above Wm. B. Hooper & Co., where will be found everything in the merchandising business. These gentlemen are old residents, and are highly esteemed by all who come in contact with them. Henry S. Fitzgerald, an energetic and promising young business man, was formerly connected with the firm of Wm. B. Hooper & Co. for several years, and his many friends will be glad to know of his success in life. Charles H. Kenyon is also well known as Stage Agent on the line between this place and Tucson, and is fully alive to the advancement of our Territory. We would recommend the new firm to the patronizing public.

TEAM MOVEMENTS.—Three teams arrived from San Diego this week, with freight for Florence.

Charley Beach's train arrived last Thursday evening from the interior, and will leave with freight sometime during the coming week.

RETURNED.—Clarence Gray, Esq., and Judge McCarthy returned from Fort Mohave last Sunday evening by the Cocopah. Mr. Gray is delighted with his trip above, and speaks very highly of the future prospects of the Huapapai District.

The Colorado river, during the past week, has risen three feet.
